

Pfft, You Were Gone

[D] I miss you so much, the [G] taters need [D] diggin'
The corn in the field, it needs pickin' [A7] now
How [D] well I recall the [G] first time I [D] saw you
You looked so pretty a [A7] pullin' the [D] plow

Chorus:

[G] Where, oh where are you [D] tonight
Why did you leave me here all [A7] alone
I [D] searched the world over and [G] thought I'd found [D] true love
You met another and [A7] phfft, you were [D] gone

Your lips were as red as [G] ripe boysen[D]berries
Your ears were as big as sails in the [A7] breeze.
Your [D] two eyes bugged out like [G] old pop-eyed [D] mullets
Your hair like haywire, hung [A7] down to your [D] knees

Chorus

I saw your buck teeth and [G] that struck me [D] funny
I'm sorry to say I wanted to [A7] laugh
You [D] told me the truth, your [G] tooth cost you [D] money
You said it cost a [A7] buck and a [D] half

Chorus

I thought my love was [G] all that you [D] wanted
I can't believe my gold made you [A7] fall
I [D] thought you would leave the [G] hogs in the [D] pig pen
I was mistaken for [A7] you took them [D] all

Chorus
