

Why Me?

[C] I met her in a night club over on the lower east [F] side
I was [G7] workin' with my head down tryin' to keep the groove alive [C]
She looked like a bunny out of Playboy maga[F]zine
I just [C] had to meet her she was the [G7] cutest thing I'd ever [C] seen

She had high heel boots, blonde hair and big blue [F] eyes
The [G7] way she was movin' to the music had me hypno[C]tized
I ran up to her said "Baby, what's your [F] name"
I [C] should've known better, now [G7] I've only got myself to [C] blame.

Chorus:

I said whyyyy, why, why [F] me
[G7] Fallin' like this is the very last thing I [C] need
If I had any sense you know I'd turn around and leave [F]
I said [C] why, why, [G7] why [C] me

Started drinking champagne, makin' every joint in [F] town
Ba ba ba ba ba bam! [NC] A hundred dollars every time I turned a [C] round
Bout the time my money ran out you know my honey was [F] gone
And I [C] was cryin' out loud to [G7] myself as I was walking [C] home

Chorus

[C] [E] [F] [F#]
[C] Why, why, [G7] why [C] me
